

TENTATIVE RULINGS
Judge Kelly - September 22, 2006

NEIGHBORS V. NEIGHBORS

129288

TENTATIVE: Subject to argument or comments of counsel, the court is inclined to waive witness fees per Government Code 68097.55, and ask the sheriff to reserve the subpoena with the amended fee waiver order.

VEGA V. KMART

135825

TENTATIVE: Granted, with sanctions in the amount of $600.00.

MATEJKA V. TRENTMAN

136433

TENTATIVE: The court is inclined to take the matter under submission for a written ruling, with or without oral argument. If either counsel wish argument, they should so advise the court and opposing counsel as required by the rules. If all counsel do appear and argue the motions, the court will hear the CMC conference immediately thereafter, rather than waiting until 10:30 a.m.

TAYLOR V. DMV

137230

TENTATIVE: The petition is denied.

CONSERVATORSHIP OF MURRAY

PR-36520

TENTATIVE: The court will hear from counsel with regard to the authority for holding the funds in the account until approval of the final accounting, or for releasing the funds prior to payment thereto.
